Nottingham Station is located on Carrington Street and is next to the current terminus for the Trams on Station Street (about a 10 minute walk away). It is also a short walk to Broadmarsh Bus Station and Broadmarsh Shopping Centre.

The station is operated by Central Trains and the Ticketing Area by Midland Mainline. Both operators run very regular services to and from the station, including a half-hourly train to London, operated by Midland Mainline. Nottingham is about 90 minutes from London St Pancras by high-speed train.

There is step free access to the whole station (but a long-winded route to Platform 6), and the recommended interchange time is 8 minutes.

The station is served by lots of bus services, stopping outside on Carrington Street, and has a footbridge from the platforms, over Station Street to Station Street Tramstop.

By Air

East Midlands Airport is approximately 14 miles from Micros building. A taxi ride takes about 45 minutes from the terminals. Taxis are available from the airport, alternatively local taxi numbers are listed towards the end of this document.
